What's Silence Booth

A silence booth, also known as a soundproof booth, office booth, phone booth, or meeting booth, is primarily designed to provide a separate space for office work or focused work by isolating from the external environment and creating a more private or quiet environment.

Why we need Silence Booth

Silence booths ensure privacy and productivity, carefully designed personal offices allow you to focus on your tasks.

70%

Americans' office spaces are all open-plan offices.

50%

Employees complain that their offices are too distracting and need more private space.

40%

Less crowded meeting rooms

75%

Increase productivity

- Improved productivity-a quiet working environment greatly enhances employee performance
- Enhanced collaboration-when your employees work together in our flexible meeting rooms, they will discover a shared energy
- Comfort-whether sitting or standing, our ergonomic office desks can be adjusted according to your needs
- Reduce stress-employees are no longer exposed to continuous auditory and visual stimuli in open-plan offices

EPD SERIES

An Adjustable and Efficient installation silent booth

Different from other silence booth modules, EPD only requires minimal fixing of accessories after lifting, making installation more efficient and userfriendly.

 40min Installation time

01 Soundproofing

Effectively isolates external disturbances, sound absorption and noise reduction.

02 Adjustable height

Only requires minimal fixing of accessories after lifting, one-key lifting for efficient installation.

03 Optional sockets

According to different export standards and user requirements, different socket options can be selected for a more secure use.

04 Lighting

Compliant with European standards, the cabin is equipped with a 4000K natural light LED central lighting system.

05 Fresh air system

The high wind pressure and low noise fresh air system completes one air ex-change inside the cabin every minute.

06 Soundproofing materials

Five-layer composite material that is environmentally friendly and soundproof, effectively ensuring product performance.

Silence Booth

A simple yet valuable quiet space

The noise, busy traffic, and constant work pressure of urban life make people increasingly eager to find a quiet space of their own. Silence booths have emerged in such a background, providing people with an ideal haven.
